

Economic Development Manager
City of Sierra Vista, AZ

---

Located in beautiful Southeastern Arizona, Sierra Vista (pop. 45,794) is home to Fort Huachuca, the largest military installation in the state and the Army's military intelligence and network command headquarters. At an elevation of 4,600 feet, the community enjoys enviable weather and supports an active lifestyle. The city has a wide array of businesses plus an emerging cyber security industry that holds tremendous potential. Increasing tourism in Arizona also presents exciting opportunities for Sierra Vista's economic growth.

The City is seeking a highly motivated and creative economic development professional who offers a track record of designing and implementing effective initiatives that enhance urban redevelopment and revitalization. The ideal candidate will be an outstanding communicator and presenter, as well as an impressive and collaborative relationship builder. Five years of increasingly responsible relevant experience, which includes at least two years of management experience, and a Bachelor's degree are required.

Starting salary range $89,811 - $112,263 (midpoint); placement within the starting range will be DOQE. This recruitment will close on Sunday, January 29, 2017. To apply electronically and obtain detailed recruitment brochure, visit www.tbcrecruiting.com.

Teri Black • 424.296.3111
Bradley Wardle • 650.450.3299
www.tbcrecruiting.com