

HISTORIC PRESERVATION OFFICER

The City of Tucson's Planning and Development Services Department seeks a Historic Preservation Principal Planner (Historic Preservation Officer) to join our customer-centric culture providing strategic, timely, and quality services to an engaged community. We are seeking an experienced, motivated, highly qualified and creative professional whose strong interpersonal skills, and ability to work with the public will help advance our department vision and guide a mature and well regarded cultural resource program. The City of Tucson and Pima County have a rich and varied cultural heritage. Preserving these cultural resources is a priority that must be considered and balanced with Tucson's need for growth and development.

Minimum Requirements

- Bachelor's Degree
- At least three years of experience promoting historic preservation programs to protect cultural resources

In addition to the minimum requirements listed above, the ideal candidate will

- have a Master's Degree in a field related to Historic Preservation, Architecture, Anthropology, Archeology, Art History, Urban Planning
- have three to five years of experience in the protection and management of cultural resources
- three years supervisory experience

Apply Now

To be considered for this excellent career opportunity, please visit our website at

<https://jobaps.com/tucson/>